Friday 9th October

Happy Friday!

The team at Sandown has so much to smile about this week...

Firstly, to the adults coming into school in the morning, a huge thank you for your dancing, singing and smiling. The music at the gates has made us all smile and we are really hoping for some requests. As you know I love a little bit of George Michael, Madonna and Disney so we need some different tunes to make the day start off the right way.

The next very exciting piece of news is that we have awarded our first 2 Bronze Sandown Belonging Award wristbands this week. The children have really engaged with this new initiative and there is so much chatter about it in school. I am sure the wristbands will come thick and fast now as we have many children very close to hitting the first Awards. I am a very proud headteacher.

And lastly, thank you for helping the school with attendance so far this year. The school is currently at 96% attendance which is better than this time last year. A particular mention needs to go to Years R, 2 and 3 who are all currently at 97% which is very impressive. Thank you.

Have a lovely weekend and see you next week at the parent meetings on Monday and Tuesday.
